- c) The rehearsal must be brief – about 45 minutes.
- d) If scheduled on Fridays and Saturdays, rehearsals must be scheduled during the dinner hour – between 6 and 7PM. This is so as not to interfere with the event under way.

Dear Wedding Families of Homestead Meadows,

Here are just some of the reasons why more than 1,500 couples, their families, and their guests have loved Homestead Meadows in the past:

1. We have 50+ acres of beautiful grounds, and our end-of-road location offers exceptional privacy and freedom from traffic noise and hazards to children.
2. Our landscape is dotted with ponds, wild flower plantings, ancient cedar groves and large shade trees. Split rail and stone fences provide exceptional photo opportunities everywhere.
3. We provide for you a completely private event, with no other party at the main farm site during your wedding.
4. Our buildings are over 100 years old, yet with meticulous restoration and maintenance, they provide an environment that rivals the quality of the best new banquet facilities.
5. We have eight beautiful, large indoor restrooms that compare to those of the best hotels.
6. We have heating and air conditioning in all buildings and rooms.
7. Hardwood and tile floors with areas of carpeting provide an upscale feel, while retaining all the charm of hand-hewn timbers and hand-built stone walls.
8. Private dressing rooms are provided for the men and women of the wedding party. Hair and makeup artists are welcome to do their magic on-site.
9. Rooms in the Machine Shed can be used for staging snacks and refreshments between the ceremony and dinner hour.
10. Hundreds of tables and chairs are available for your exact requirements, and we do all the setup for you.
11. We offer a single site for your complete event accommodations--ceremony, photographs, cocktail hour, dinner, reception, dance--everything, so your guests don't need to travel to separate sites.
12. There is no extra charge for the ceremony, and there is a discount if your ceremony is held elsewhere before the festivities begin at Homestead Meadows.
13. We do all the cleanup. At the end of the night, just gather your personal items, and leave the cleanup for us.
14. Our Hayloft Wedding Chapel provides a beautiful rainy-weather alternative to an outdoor ceremony. If the weather is uncertain on your wedding day, we set up in both indoor and outdoor locations to minimize your stress. The indoor/outdoor decision can be made as weather indicates, with no stress or inconvenience to you.
15. We are minutes from many hotels in the Fox River Mall area, some of which offer free shuttle service to the Farm.
16. There are no added charges like at so many other places--so much for your ceremony, so much for each chair, so much for guest count over a certain number, etc. Our fee is simple and fixed.
17. Our buildings have been through local Zoning and Wisconsin Commercial Building Code approval process, unlike the buildings of some other farm-themed venues.

Sincerely... The Nagy Family

Homestead Meadows' Policy on Wedding Cancellations

The standard policy of wedding banquet facilities is that wedding deposit payments are non-refundable. Homestead Meadows follows this standard.

There are several reasons for nonrefundable deposits. Here are some thoughts to explain why this policy is reasonable and necessary.

Reason 1

If deposits were refundable, many couples without firm plans or serious commitment would reserve a date and later cancel. Cancelled dates are often not possible to re-book, or are rebooked at much reduced rates.

Reason 2

The wedding banquet business is a challenging one, as evidenced by the fact that several banquet facilities in Northeast Wisconsin have gone out of business—some more than once—within the past few years. Some reasons are:

1. Large group facilities require a high investment, and are utilized mostly on weekends.
2. Most wedding couples visit many different facilities before they decide where to book. This results in high expenses scheduling visits and holding personal and telephone, e-mail, and text messaging discussions.
3. Lots of staff members need to be available to staff a wedding—for setup, monitoring, and cleanup functions. This creates challenges in hiring and training help, and dealing with high staff turnover.
4. When a wedding is cancelled after being booked, it is likely that other couples who may have been interested in the same date had been turned away.
5. Even if the date is booked again later, the marketing expenses for booking the date have added up significantly. It costs a great deal to meet with wedding couples and their families—sometimes repeatedly—and to turn away other couples after a date is booked.

Homestead Meadows has set reasonable initial and scheduled investments for weddings and other events to book dates firmly and hold them over months. These payments are nonrefundable.

Please consider this when making your plans. We want you to be sure that Homestead Meadows is the right place when you are ready for your spectacular country wedding.
